

Project	Name:	Telehealth for Supportive Survivorship Care Project – WHCG, RNH
	Lead agency:	Cancer Council Victoria
	Key Contact:	Jane Auchetti
	Tel:	9514 6348
	Email:	Jane.Auchettl@cancervic.org.au
	To increase access to a survivorship education, exercise and wellness program in rural and regional Victoria using telehealth with Rural Northwest Health, Wimmera Health Care Group and Stawell Regional Health.
Wimmera PCP role:	Membership on working group – provide advice on service coordination & project support as required.
Objectives	To increase access and uptake to an education, assessment rehabilitation and supportive care program for cancer patients and their carers in regional and rural locations using telehealth.	Date
	To design mechanisms for regional program planning, promotion and delivery
	To design multiple referral pathways into the program
	To design governance and resource models for the delivery of a psycho-educational intervention
	To design, pilot and evaluate resources, tools, and specific facilitation models for WALAC for telehealth program delivery.
	To innovate and enhance CCV's WALAC program with tailored assessment, practical exercise and wellness sessions for survivors and carers
Status:	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Incomplete <input type="checkbox"/> Complete <input type="checkbox"/> Follow-up activities identified (new template)
Governance	Project Working Group: Jane Auchettl - Cancer Council Victoria Sarah Dwyer - Cancer Council Victoria Carmel O'Kane – Wimmera Health Care Group Lea Marshall – Grampians Integrated Cancer Service Kathleen Poulton – Rural Northwest Health Jade Cleary – Stawell Regional Health Leonie Bird – Community Representative Michelle Judd – Goulburn Valley Health Tracey Daffy - Wimmera Health Care Group
Infrastructure/software	Wall mounted screen & VC hardware at WHCG, RNH & SRH
Clinician Engagement	Exercise Physiologist

Consumer Engagement	Participants at HUB site and spokes site
Adaptability to other areas of service delivery	Is also being rolled out in the Hume area once the initial pilot project is completed.
Evaluations	After the pilot project, consumers will complete two surveys and participate in a telephone survey with staff from Cancer Council Victoria. A final project report will be completed after the pilot program and additional programs with Hume and Wimmera Health Care Group included.
Learnings & new activities	TBC

Last updated: 23/6/17